

3.4.8 Results

This section of the review report has distinct sub-sections describing the process of study inclusion, the methodological quality of the eligible studies, detailed characteristics and description of the included studies and, importantly, the findings of the review and results of the synthesis processes.